For the eighth consecutive year, the Golf Club at Fiddler's Creek was home to the annual Fore-the-Kids Golf Tournament with all proceeds benefiting the Boys & Girls Club of Collier County.

The event held on Saturday, November 5th raised a record amount, according to Theresa Shaw, President and CEO of the Boys & Girls Club.

The overall winning team consisted of Joey Colosi, David Smith, Joe Wall and John Beeman. In second place was the team of Larry White, George Gibson, Bill Muhlenbeck and Jon Homstad.

The low net ladies competition was won by the ladies golfing team of Jackie DelGuidice, Janice Miller, Nancy Zillig and Jean Pugh. The Bigham Jewelry Champion was golfer Ann Lee Levitt.

Finally, the longest drive competition for men was claimed by Glenn Williams on Hole 8 and Jonathan Jay on Hole 17. Longest drive for women was Lisa Gargulio on both Holes 7 and 15.

Founded in 1991, the Boys & Girls Club of Collier County is a non-profit organization dedicated to inspiring and enabling all young people to reach their full potential as productive, caring, responsible citizens. It is the only academically based youth development program in the county.

The organization currently serves more than 1,500 youth daily at a main campus and three school-based locations in the East Naples and Golden Gate communities. It also serves 900 children in Immokalee, the county's neediest community, in hopes of a permanent facility there.
