Amador enclave by D.R. Horton launched at Fiddler’s Creek

January 8, 2012

Fiddler’s Creek has introduced the village of Amador, an enclave of 38 classical Mediterranean style single-family homes to be built within the master-planned luxury residential community.

Offered by D.R. Horton, the village of Amador will offer three, three-bedroom floor plans ranging from 2,582 to 3,562 total square feet. Additionally, most of the homes within Amador will be situated with water views.

A blend of features that will be evident throughout each home in Amador, include a gourmet kitchen, courtyard entry, two-car garage and adequate space for an optional swimming pool. Home prices start at $379,990.

“We are delighted to introduce the village of Amador at Fiddler’s Creek,” said Aubrey J. Ferrao, president and CEO of Fiddler’s Creek LLC. “These new homesites will complement our current offerings and will provide buyers with a high-quality product in a distinctive neighborhood.”

Launched in 1998, Fiddler’s Creek comprises approximately 4,000 acres and is zoned for 6,000 residences. With a very low density level of 1.6 homes per gross acre, the master-planned community will be comprised of about 100 residential neighborhoods upon completion.

Amenities offered at Fiddler’s Creek include a 54,000-square-foot club and spa, a fitness center, resort-style multi-pool swimming complex, tennis courts and restaurants.

Homeowners also have the opportunity to join The Golf Club and The Tarpon Club, which offers residents a beach and boating lifestyle.

Fiddler’s Creek is off Collier Boulevard on the way to Marco Island. The Sales Center is at 8152 Fiddler’s Creek Parkway. Online at <http://www.fiddlerscreek.com>.
