

Fiddler's Creek residents continue a busy summer

Aug. 3, 2011

Summertime is a great time for Fiddler's Creek homeowners to explore and rediscover the area all over again.

Residents have a full summer lineup of events, including dining, cooking classes, jewelry classes for the artistic, as well as movies, shopping, nature tours and casino runs.

On Tuesday mornings, Fiddler's Creek homeowners can join the fun on the "Ride to Riches" bus trip to the Seminole Casino in Immokalee, departing at 8:30 a.m. and returning at 3:15 p.m.

The "Dine Around" events in the summer are a hit with Fiddler's Creek residents. A few of the restaurants that residents will be exploring include Le Lafayette in the Third Street South District, M Waterfront Grille on Venetian Bay and Cafe Lurcat on 5th Ave.

A Summer Cooking Class and Tasting has been added to the mix. Chef Eric and his team guide residents through the preparations of several summertime favorites.

Attendees need to bring their appetites as there will be plenty of food.

Jewelry making has become a popular art and craft with Fiddler's Creek residents as they create their very own one-of-a-kind pieces, including a Lotus Necklaces made of glass Japanese Seed beads in a variety of colors along with silver charm beads in various shapes accented with Swarovski crystals.

Another new event this summer is the "Movie Day and Lunch at Mercato."

The first of this classic combo includes lunch at McCormick & Schmick's followed by the hit movie "Larry Crowne" at the Silverspot Cinema at Mercato.

What would the summer be without a few special nights at Caxambas Restaurant? Start with a Fiddler's Creek homeowner favorite "Wine Tasting at Caxambas" followed by "Bring Your Own Wine" night.

Later in the month, homeowners watched Fiddler's Creek bartenders concoct an assortment of refreshing summer cocktails and martinis at another tasting.

Fiddler's Creek is located off State Road 951 (Collier Boulevard).
